We're moving toward Generosity Sunday — Oct. 11 — our opportunity to define how we will financially support College Place for 2027. Please prayerfully consider how much you will pledge so that our Finance Committee can prepare an annual budget.

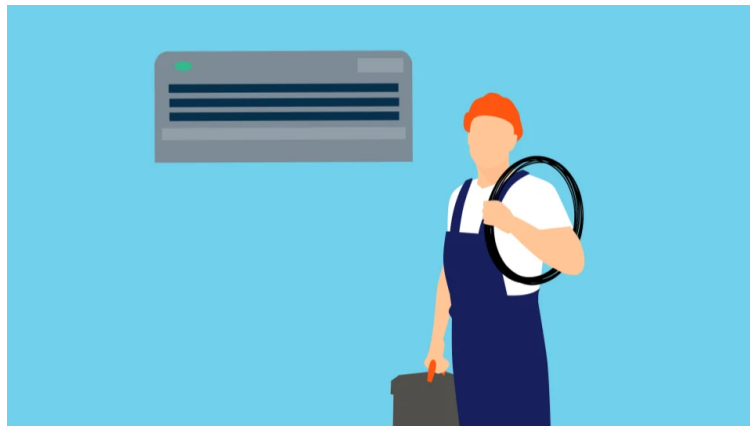

Estimate of Giving forms were mailed from our office this week. This year, you can also submit your estimate digitally. Scan the QR code on the image above [Note: Currently the code is not working properly on some phones/browsers] or go directly to our website and fill out the form. Your form goes straight to our office. We ask that all estimates — paper or digital — be submitted by Oct. 11.

We Need YOU!! (We Really Do)

Let's spruce up before Homecoming! We need volunteers to help deep clean the church both inside and outside. Come for as long as you can.

Time to Honor an Unsung Hero

The Jack Carter Award nominations are open. The annual honor, inspired and named after a current church member, is meant for a volunteer who exhibits the willingness to jump in when and where help is needed to maintain the day-to-day physical operations and appearance of our church's physical property.

The deadline for nominations is 1 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 13. Forms can be found in the sanctuary narthex, the church office and the CLC. Finished forms should go to the office.

Submissions should include reasons for the nomination, such as: This person is always around assisting with various projects at the church, like fixing toilets, changing light bulbs, cleaning up spills or stains, setting up/taking down tables for dinners or services, weeding, power washing, replacing ceiling tiles, etc. Recent winners have included Earl Buckner and Judy Chambless.

The winner will be announced during our Homecoming Service at 10:30 a.m., Oct. 25.

Pastor Jake's New-Testament-in-a-Year reading plan will continue through December. This week's reading is Philippians 4; Colossians 1-4. Read a chapter per day during the week (Mon-Fri). Check in on Facebook toward the end of the week to watch Jake's video discussion.
